

Parents Right To Know

Parents of students enrolled in the Haakon School District have the right to know the qualifications of all persons teaching and assisting their child including the following:

- Whether the teacher has met State qualification and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.
- Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State qualification or licensing criteria have been waived.
- The baccalaureate degree major of the teacher and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certification or degree.
- Whether the child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.

If you are interested in this information, you may send your request to the administration office and personnel will provide a timely response.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION that will be provided to parents includes:

- information on the level of achievement of the parent's child in each of the State academic assessments as required under this part; and
- a timely notice that your child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified.
